Guiding Positive Change

We build sustainability

We believe that the sustainability of peace is affected by the contribution of every individual. We are committed to making a positive impact in society by contributing to the UN SDGs.

We are human-centric

Our approach is human-centric and permeates our entire work. This means promoting inclusion, diversity, equality, compassion, empathy and love for human beings and nature.

From Inner to Outer Harmony.

Our goal

Our goal is to provide communities with transformational tools in an environment that promotes sustainable peace and inclusion. This is achieved through our human-centric programs and our four focus pillars:

education
well-being
personal and socio-economic development
environmental sustainability

By transforming the life of one person, we transform entire communities.

E-motions, Visoko, 2021

Education

SANCHILD regards education as the prerequisite for global harmony and peace. Therefore, we aim to implement non-formal educational projects for all generations, to promote critical thinking, prevent conflicts, and build interpersonal trust and mutual understanding.

Serendipity, Bihac, 2021

Well-being

With our holistic approach, we aim to support individuals in their process of trauma-healing, empowerment and building inner-peace and compassionate connection with their surroundings.

Socio-economic development

Our main focus is positive and measurable development of societies. This occurs through empowerment of individuals (via educational and well-being programs) and facilitation of economic growth by promoting green entrepreneurship, innovative technologies and technical solutions.

FLOW, Olovo, 2013

Sustainable environment

Taking care of the environment is one of the keys for prosperity. We aim to develop programs that will promote a green economy, mindful understanding of our responsibility to care for nature.

HARMONY Project envisions a long-term, ripple effect of inspiring positive changes that contribute to peace and harmony in society.

Our achievements

Our projects are carefully created to support personal development and positive transformation of local communities, by drawing peace from the inside-out.

We started our work as an association from 2013, and as an organization in 2019. Currently, we operate in Switzerland, Sweden and Bosnia and Herzegovina.

HARMONY PROJECT is an educational platform that aims to contribute to harmonious change and sustainable peace-building activities in the society. It is providing opportunities and constant support to the local teachers, artists, social workers, and activists who seek positive changes in themselves and their communities.

In June 2021, we organized our first "HARMONY PROJECT: Train the trainer" week in B&H, with 19 participants from 11 cities. Inspired and guided by our 13 international facilitators, they created their own projects tackling key societal issues – cultural and ethnic differences and stereotypes, women and girls empowerment, human trafficking, sexual violence and abuse, emotions and well-being.

The first HARMONY Project resulted in 17 local ripple projects with more than 300 direct beneficiaries, and 2 books, 1 theatre play and 1 social platform that will continue making an impact.

The implementation of this project was supported by Rotary International Global Grant, Rotary club Sarajevo, a number of Rotary clubs across Europe, Global Sourcing Technische Produkte GmbH and Western Balkans Alumni Association.

Our future plan

HARMONY Project

Our plan is to create ripple effect of positive changes in communities in B&H, Sweden, Switzerland, France and beyond, by providing "Train the Trainer" program to more local professionals, and by supporting Alumni through our network, grants, education and guidance. Our goal is to repeat all Ripple Projects in the following years.

Scholarship and Mentorship Programs

Through our study grants support, mentorship programs and non-formal education, we are dedicated to inspire and transform the lives of academically brilliant, talented and hard-working students.

We have successfully supported the education of 3 under- and post-graduates and our goal is to grow our scholars platform.

IDEALISTS Summit

With the IDEALISTS Summit we want to support youth in their creative process and implementation of their ideas through an experimental process and acceleration from their "ideas" to "sustainable implementation" that will impact the future of the world.

HARMONY Institute

This is a professional educational and research establishment where we support, educate, train, and empower individuals to heal transgenerational and post-war trauma, promote well-being and harmonious living in communities.

Innovation Center

Innovation center is an institute and a start-up accelerator, that will provide young innovators and entrepreneurs a space, offices, network of recognized local and international professionals, education and other support they need to make their innovative ideas become reality.
